

Adventure Tourism Winter Equipment list

The list below itemizes the equipment required to complete the courses within the ATW program. Larger pieces of Equipment can often be rented from the operator for the duration of the course. Personal items such as clothing need to be purchased.

The remainder of the equipment can be purchased, rented or from local supplies.
Including:

1) Outdoor Survival Skills

- Goggles – ski style best to have at least two
- Gloves -- thin gloves for riding 2-3 pairs, warm/waterproof ski type gloves, suitable for standing around
- Touring Skis & Skins or
- Split-board & Skins or
- Snowshoes & sturdy winter boots for snowshoeing
- Synthetic or wool mid layer top and bottom
- Synthetic or wool base layer, top and bottom
- Synthetic or wool socks
- Warm, waterproof outer layers (top & bottom)
- Guide Pack - 40-55L
- Sleeping Bag
- Sleeping Pad
- Avalanche Transceiver
- Avalanche Probe
- Avalanche Shovel
- “Leatherman” type multi-tool
- Watch
- Carabiner x 2
- Sling or rope 50cm
- Waterproof “rite in the rain” style notebook
- Lunch and snack for field days
- Water bottle

2) Backcountry Skiing/Snowboarding

- Avalanche Transceiver
- Avalanche Probe
- Avalanche Shovel
- Touring Skis or Split board
- Touring Ski boots/Snowboard Boots
- Skiers – Tech Bindings
- Snowboarders – Touring Bindings
- Skins for your skis or board
- Poles
- Base layers, hat, gloves *2 , warm socks, mid layers, waterproof & windproof jacket and pants.
- Goggles, Sun glasses, sunscreen, helmet is optional,
- Rite in the rain book and pencil,

- food and water
- backpack.
- Lift Tickets or Seasons Pass
- Insurance

3) Backpacking/ Experiential Leadership

- Touring Skis & Skins or
- Split-board & Skins or
- Snowshoes & sturdy winter boots for snowshoeing
- Poles (adjustable/fixed)
- Avalanche Transceiver
- Avalanche Probe
- Avalanche Shovel
- Synthetic or wool mid layer top and bottom
- Synthetic or wool base layer, top and bottom
- Synthetic or wool socks
- Warm, waterproof outer layers (top & bottom)
- Day Pack
- Multi-Day Pack
- Leatherman" type multi-tool
- Watch
- Carabiner x 2
- Sling or rope 50cm
- Waterproof "rite in the rain" style notebook
- Sleeping Bag
- Sleeping Pad
- Water Bottle
- Lunch and snack for field days